DES SEEKS PUBLIC'S ASSISTANCE IN LOCATING VULNERABLE YOUNG MAN

TUCSON – (March 13, 2007) The Arizona Department of Economic Security is asking for the public's help in locating a vulnerable young man who may be in need of insulin.

Scott Williams, 19, left his home in Tucson near 4th Avenue and 22nd Street at 5 p.m. on March 5 and has not been heard from since. Scott is diagnosed with cognitive disability and functions at about a 7-year-old level. He is also a brittle diabetic who needs daily doses of insulin.

A recent photo of Scott is available at: <http://www.azdes.gov/news/pics.asp>. When last seen, Scott was wearing a black hooded sweatshirt with black printing, a black Raiders jersey #81, black baggy pants, shiny blue and white tennis shoes, and a tan baseball cap. He was carrying a black Walkman.

His family and service providers are very concerned about Scott's well-being. Anyone with information on his whereabouts is asked to call the DES at 520-664-5399, 24 hours a day, seven days a week. If Scott is in need of medical attention, please call 9-1-1.
